Aniston files for divorce

LOS ANGELES—Jennifer Aniston has filed for divorce from Brad Pitt, quashing hopes of a happy ending for one of Hollywood's hottest couples.

The star of hit TV series "Friends" filed for divorce in the Los Angeles Superior Court Friday, three months after she and Pitt jointly announced a separation.

The filing gave no indication on how the couple plan to divide their extensive assets, which include several multimillion-dollar homes and a production company.

Aniston met Hollywood leading man Pitt on a set-up dinner date in 1998 and the two were married in July 2000 in a lavish oceanside ceremony featuring fireworks and live music by passionate French band The Gipsy Kings.

The terse announcement of their separation on Jan. 7 sparked shockwaves and a rain of speculation about the cause of the breakup.

Could it have been differences over the ideal moment to have a child? Was it interference from a growing friendship between Pitt and sultry actress Angelina Jolie?

The break came as Pitt, 41, reportedly wanted to start a family, while Aniston, who has since turned 36, wanted to put childbearing off to focus on her career.

People west coast editor Todd Gold said that was part of the reason. She also wanted to make sure her marriage would last, he said.

Then, there is speculation that Jolie, named sexiest woman by Esquire last year, caught Pitt's eye, as they worked together on "Mr. and Mrs. Smith."

"There was no confirmation that he had an affair with Angelina Jolie," Jess Cagle, the People editor, said.

"We do know that a respect developed and they became friends and I'm not sure that sat well with Jennifer Aniston."

No, no and no, the couple said in a joint announcement of their separation on Jan. 7.

"For those who follow these sorts of things, we would like to explain that our separation is not the result of any speculation reported by the tabloid media. This decision is the result of much thoughtful consideration.

"We happily remain committed and caring friends with great love and admiration for one another."

The separation came after four and a half years of marriage and months of rumor prompted when Aniston showed up at the opening of "Ocean's Twelve" without her wedding ring.

Aniston became one of America's most recognizable stars for her role in the hit television sitcom "Friends" which finally went off air in 2004 after a 10-year run. She won a Golden Globe and an Emmy for her portrayal of Rachel Green on the show.

Post "Friends," her career appeared headed for a healthy transition, as she has several movie projects in the works. Her last hit film, "Along Came Polly," a comedy co-starring Ben Stiller, grossed $86 million in the United States.

Forbes magazine named her the most powerful star on the planet in 2003 in its annual "Celebrity 100" list. In 2002, she made $35 million, according to Forbes.

F-16 crash

MANILA, Dec. 17 (AP) — A gambling financier said two top Davao City police officers are on her payroll, a claim that has drawn the attention of the Philippine National Police.

The financier, who is a close associate of the late President Ferdinand Marcos, said the two officers are responsible for the protection of her interests in the city. She said the officers are also involved in the collection of taxes and other payments from the city's gambling industry.

The Philippine National Police has been investigating the financier's claims for some time. The police have said that they have found evidence that the two officers are indeed on the financier's payroll. The police have also said that they have found evidence that the two officers are involved in the collection of taxes and other payments from the city's gambling industry.

The financier has denied the police's claims, saying that the two officers are simply friends of hers. She has also said that she has no knowledge of the collection of taxes and other payments from the city's gambling industry. The police have said that they will continue to investigate the financier's claims.

12 killed as bus hits jeep, van

ONE Atty.-Teacher passengers were killed while 13 others were seriously injured when a bus loaded for Metro Manila that was trying to overtake hit a jeep and a van along the Marikina Highway last night. At least three other passengers were injured at around 9:30 a.m. yesterday.

Most of those killed were passengers of the jeep, police said.

Chief Insp. Francisco Reyes, Cebu police chief, identified eight of the passengers as follows: Reyes, 27; Alfonso, 27; Alfonso, 27; Alfonso, 27; Alfonso, 27; Alfonso, 27; Alfonso, 27; Alfonso, 27. The bus was heading southbound, he said. The jeep was heading northbound, and the van was heading southbound.

Reyes said the bus was carrying 12 passengers and was heading southbound.

Two of those were also seriously injured. The other two were seriously injured.

Among the passengers of the van, six were injured and were treated at the Manila General Hospital.

PINR Field Command said the Denmar bus, with license plate EYE 274 was overtaking another bus when it hit the jeepney with license plate EYE 325 and the van with license plate 375 082.

The jeepney and the van were headed for Legaspi City from Palangal town.

The incident resulted in the two passengers, including a 7-year-old boy from Marikina town in Cavite, who were on the way to a shopping in Legaspi City.

The passenger from Marikina, from Marikina, who was attending the first death anniversary of a relative, said he had already a feeling that they would meet an accident because the bus driver seemed to be in a hurry. Agnes Belmonte, a jeepney passenger, said as she told that when the jeep they were riding as was hit, she saw her niece and nephew, Jennifer, 5, and Wendel, 6, unconscious, while most of the other passengers were bleeding.

Last Monday, 23, the bus driver, claimed that he had a problem with his vehicle's steering wheel. Sunday is now detained at the Cebu jail.

Science expo showcases student inventions

By Tom Ivers

Students from across the country gathered in Los Angeles last week for the annual Science Expo, a showcase of student inventions and projects. The event, held at the Los Angeles Convention Center, drew thousands of visitors and featured a wide variety of exhibits, from simple science experiments to complex engineering projects.

One of the most popular exhibits was a display of student-built robots, which competed in a series of challenges. The robots, built using a variety of materials and components, were designed to perform tasks such as balancing on a beam, navigating a maze, and lifting weights.

Another popular exhibit was a display of student-built bridges, which were tested for strength and stability. The bridges, built using a variety of materials and designs, were subjected to a series of loads and stresses to determine their maximum capacity.

The Science Expo is a major event for students and teachers alike, providing a chance for students to showcase their work and for teachers to see the latest in student research and innovation.

Armed threats. Faithful join Good Friday rites

By Margaret L. King

Despite the threat of violence, thousands of faithful joined Good Friday rites in Los Angeles last week. The services, held at various churches and community centers, drew large crowds of people who gathered to pray and reflect on the meaning of the day.

One of the most notable services was held at the Los Angeles Cathedral, where a large crowd of people gathered for a series of prayers and readings. The service was led by the cathedral's rector, who emphasized the importance of faith and hope in the face of adversity.

Other services were held at various churches and community centers throughout the city, each drawing its own share of faithful. The services were a testament to the power of faith and the ability of people to come together in times of crisis.

During the summer months, consumers often send money to loved ones to celebrate such occasions as graduations, fiestas and harvests or to assist with the cost of vacations, construction or repainting.

Western Union designed this pricing promotion to help them stretch their money even further.

Menchi Orlina, vice president of Western Union Services Philippines and APAC Inbound said, "The promotional pricing is Western Union's way of rewarding its loyal customers, as well as introducing new customers to the benefits of our money transfer service. We know our customers work hard for their money and believe they will appreciate the value of this promotional pricing. At the same time, our new customers will come to know and appreciate us for the speed, reliability and convenience offered by the Western Union Money Transfer service."

Western Union, a multinational company, with Agent locations worldwide, has been offering its money transfer service in the Philippines for 10 years.

Western Union offers its customers convenience. Western Union has more than 6,500 agent locations all over the country and consumers can retrieve funds at whichever branch is most convenient to them.

LIFESTYLE

There's a new life here and it's not just the water.
It's the way we live.

Like new life, service designing and dancing,
the music, the water and the taste of life with a twist.

Celebrating the little resurrections of every day

DAILY life is full of small moments that can be celebrated. It's the little things that make life so special. From a simple smile to a kind word, these moments can be the spark that starts a new day.

The little resurrections of every day are the moments that make life so special. They are the moments that can be celebrated.

Once upon a legendary mountain

By Benito O. Santos

Much of us have probably heard of the place and know its legend, stories, and what it has brought and may still be bringing to the world as a source of inspiration.

Mr. Marking is a mountain man who has been in the area for many years. He is a very experienced hiker and has been climbing the mountain for many years. He has seen many things and has a lot of stories to tell. He is a very friendly man and is always willing to help others. He is a very important person in the community and is always there for everyone.

And in contrast to many areas of life, where the world is the only way of knowing, in the world of the gathering, we will learn the truth about the world's future.

The following agencies are not listed in the alphabetical order: the "No more smoking" sign and the "No more smoking" sign.

The information was then used to identify trends and understand the reasons behind them. The study was a collaborative effort between the researchers and the community. The researchers provided the technical support and the community provided the data. The study was a success because it was able to identify the trends and understand the reasons behind them. The study was a success because it was able to identify the trends and understand the reasons behind them.

They have also been very helpful in identifying the subpopulations within the FPO, such as the women. With women's needs identified, it is easier to develop programs for them. For example, the FPO has a women's committee that meets monthly to discuss issues that affect women.

There's also a difference in what we're looking for. When we're looking for a job, we're looking for a job that we can do. When we're looking for a job that we can do, we're looking for a job that we can do.

Although the service offers the single- and two-person inpatient care program at a $100,000 fee, it also offers a $20,000 fee for a 10-day inpatient program. Patients may stay just one week in the service, but they can be kept in the program as long as the service desires. No payment is given for the service.

Myself, I am an old man, your friend. The rest are a company of young men, who are the best of the world. I am sure you will find them so.
